AICE Newsletter

March 2017

Message from the Editor:

Greetings from everyone at AICE.

Spring conference season has already begun for most international education professionals. The season typically begins with local and state-level meetings, the AACRAO and NAGAP annual events, culminating in the NAFSA annual conference. In March, Jasmin Saidi-Kuehnert and I both attended the Wisconsin and Michigan state meetings (WAIE and MAIE, respectively). Each conference was attended by approximately 100 individuals, primarily from academic institutions located in the state. While the majority of press is centered around national conferences, which attract thousands of attendees, I would like to highlight the value and opportunities of smaller, more localized events in this month's editorial.

The highlight of the Wisconsin state conference, besides the waterfront location on Lake Michigan, was an open session I hosted called "Ask the Credential Doctor". Because of the open format, the session turned to a discussion about verification of academic and financial documents, demonstrating that credential evaluation skills apply to many phases of the international admissions process. Further insights were provided by an immigration attorney in attendance, highlighting the multiple facets of international education.

In Michigan, I attended an eye-opening session on international summer school programs in China. This is the first time the speakers presented on this topic. This is a hot topic in the industry and has been discussed at the February AICE Credential Forum, as well as numerous other listservs and networks. Attending such a session at the state level provided valuable information on the position of Michigan State University and other local institutions.

As exhibitors, I on behalf of Foreign Credits Inc, and Jasmin Saidi-Kuehnert on behalf of ACEI, AICE was well represented, and meaningful business connections were made. Besides the unique topics, convenient scheduling, and friendly nature, state-level conferences represent an excellent value. I strongly encourage all readers to explore state and local organizations in your area, and support them. WAIE and MAIE are both run entirely by volunteers, with no membership dues. As international educators, it behooves us all to support these organizations.

Sincerely,
Aleks Morawski

AICE® Needs You:

Dear Friend,

The Association of International Credential Evaluators (AICE), a non-profit professional association of international credential evaluators from private credentialing services and U.S. academic institutions, will hold our second annual Symposium on April 5-6 at the Hilton Hotel in Minneapolis, MN.

We're currently looking for sponsors for the 2017 Symposium. Can we count on your support?

The theme for the 2017 Symposium is "Setting the Standard for Graduate Admissions: Three-year degrees and other admissions challenges." Our 2016 Phoenix Symposium attracted more than 30 high-level decision makers from academic institutions, non-profit education associations and private credential evaluation services from around the country. We anticipate the attendance will double for the 2017 Symposium.

We hope we can count on you to sponsor an event at the AICE 2017 Symposium. Please consider a sponsorship donation from the options listed in the attached Sponsorship Form. As a sponsor, your donation will be recognized at our event in several ways to help increase brand visibility and make a lasting impression. Your name will be placed on all materials and banners that publicize the event, including our website, and you will be recognized verbally at the event itself. If you wish to include any merchandise in addition to your sponsorship, it will be displayed at the Symposium for the attendees.

We hope that we can count on you to help support our cause. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at info@aice-eval.org.

Thanks in advance for your consideration!

Sincerely
Jasmin Saidi-Kuehnert

Marketing Corner

Laura Sippel Dynamic Consulting, LLC is proud to announce the recent endorsement of the Association of International Credential Evaluators, Inc. (AICE)

"With my 26 years of experience in this specialized field of marketing in credential evaluation agencies and applied comparative education, I can say endorsing the leading member credential evaluation organization of AICE is very easy and my pleasure," Sippel said. "Their set standards, quality reports prepared through expert research, fast turnaround time, technical advancements, and collegiality among the members is unparalleled. Sippel continued, "credential evaluation is to make admissions officers' jobs easier, so with AICE set standards, you do not have to decipher varying equivalencies from varying credential evaluation agencies as you would with other credential evaluation agencies without set standards. AICE Endorsed Members are leaders in the field of credential evaluation and have contributed immensely to our profession. Not only do global leaders, AACRAO Executives, and the U.S. Department of Education endorse them, they have my full support. It is a pleasure to promote the AICE Member Organization as they collaborate in a friendly manner to make sound decisions quickly and provide the highest quality evaluation reports." AICE Endorsed Members Increase Social Media Presence

AICE Marketing Consultant, Laura Sippel Dynamic Consulting, LLC has made advancements in increasing AICE's social media presence and promotion. There are many partnerships forming with global organizations such as NOKUT (the Norwegian Agency for Quality Assurance in Education) and AACRAO. The U.S. State Accountancy and Education Boards are vetting AICE to have them included as their accepted credential evaluation organization.

Laura is on the NAFSA V Leadership Committee, the Wisconsin Association of International Educators, Inc. (WAIE) Leadership Group, the Chicago International Round Table Committee, and The Hong Rost Award Committee and has brought AICE to the forefront of these organizations highlighting the stellar services of AICE Endorsed Members. Jasmin Saidi-Kuehnert, President of AICE, and Aleks Morawski, AICE Endorsed Member, presented at the WAIE Conference last week in Sheboygan, WI, with Laura being the Conference Planner. There has been a dramatic increase of the promotion of AICE through Laura's wide network of professionals and through her participation in her several international member organizations. The AICE Symposium promotion alone reached more than 3,000 professionals on LinkedIn and Facebook.
